

CAMP CURTIN COMMUNITY PRESCHOOL

It is not often that a vision becomes reality. But that is exactly what a dedicated and passionate group of individuals did in Uptown Harrisburg. Under the banner of the Camp Curtin Community Neighbors United (CCCNU) a preschool was conceived, planned and launched in February 2015 in the Uptown area. The Camp Curtin Community Preschool is geared to 3 and 4 year olds and was held 2 1/2 hours a day, 3 days a week during the fall 2015 and spring 2016 semesters. It was run entirely by volunteers and operated solely with donations from supporting organizations and individuals. The free preschool was attended by an average of 8 children per day.

We are seeking financial support to expand the operation to accommodate more children and develop separate 3 and 4 year old classrooms. In addition, we would like to move from all volunteer teachers and aides to some paid positions. Our goal is to keep the tuition “free” to families. Almost one third of the households in the Uptown area are below poverty level and about a fourth of persons 16 years and over are unemployed.

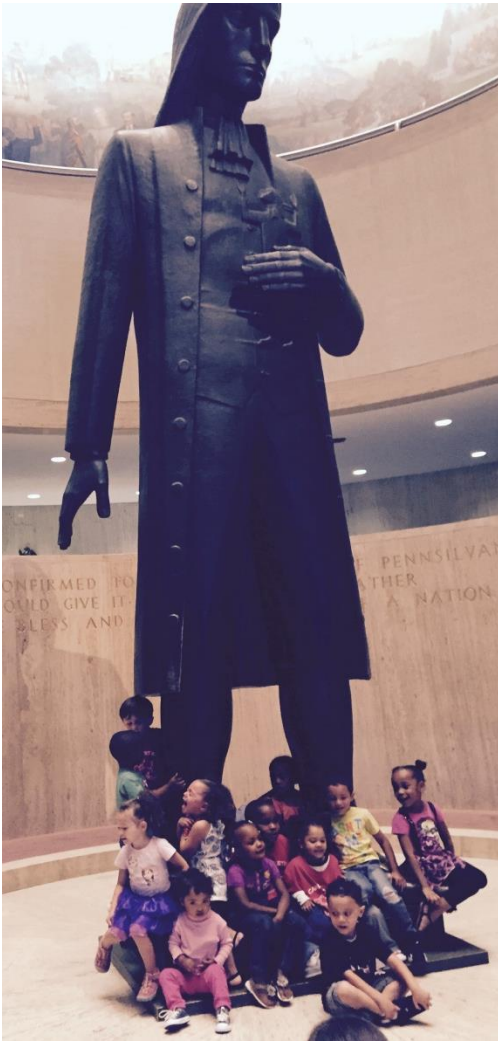

To accomplish our goal of serving 12 children in the fall semester and 24 children in the spring semester, we estimate that we will need to raise over $20,000. The Camp Curtin Community Preschool falls under the umbrella of the Covenant Community Corporation which is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization. Its mission is to foster community and civic engagement through education and assistance in neighborhood community organizing; facilitate community problem-solving; and, encourage informed input on issues affecting the day-to-day functionality of neighborhood communities and long-term neighborhood community vitality.
